On Thursday, June 5, 2014, my partner (Officer Ramirez #139) and I (Officer Trujillo #139) were assigned to the bicycle patrol team as Boy-2. We were working as contracted, uniformed security officers for the Hollywood Business Improvement District (H.B.I.D.) / Andrews International 6801 Hollywood Boulevard Hollywood, CA. 90028 (323) 465-0122.

As I was monitoring their activity, I saw S/ Paige holding what appeared to be an unknown yellow aluminum can with his right hand. Paige then lifted the can to his lip / mouth area and tilted his head back, taking a drink from it.

I then reported the activity, via handheld radio, for an additional BID patrol unit to respond to my location to monitor S/ Paige and S/ Morozik activity. BID Officer Sterling #103 arrived a short time later and began to monitor the two (2) subjects at the listed location. Sterling then advised that S/ Morozik retrieved the unknown yellow container from S/ Paige and placed it to his lip / mouth area and tilted his head back, taking a drink from it.

ARREST

Believing that both subjects were drinking a suspected alcohol beverage, we decided to make contact. As we were approaching them, I could smell a strong odor of alcohol emitting from their breath and person as they spoke to me. We also found the empty yellow "Four Lokos" container on the ground next to Morozik feet.

Upon examination, of the empty can, I noticed that its brand name was "Four Locos" Lemonade flavor 23.5-ounce can a 12% alcohol by volume.
